Executive Board Agenda

The JVCS Executive Board members will meet on Monday, December 14, at 6:30 PM.

Dr. Jesse Fast will bring devotions.

Reports will be given by the secretary, treasurer and administrators.

Business includes the following:

- Appointment with Vanderbloemen Consulting.
- Approval of a financial aid application.
- Home basketball games and spectator attendance policies.

Auction Income Exceeds Goal!

Income from our 61st Annual Auction, including donations, totals $103,900! We are overjoyed at how God worked in spite of a major change of plans. We are thanking Him for you. Your bids and gifts exceeded our goal. Your prayers made a huge difference!

In addition, our to-go pork suppers brought in a profit of $2,300. Thank you for trying these new things with us!

Interpers Earn State Superiors

JVCS Oral Interpretation students earned ratings of Superior in three categories in the virtual State competition. Making up the Reader's Theater team were seniors Julia Blom, Jordyn Cutshaw, and Seth Mendel; and juniors McKenzie Hofer and Melissa Thompson. McKenzie also earned Superiors in Serious Reading and Storytelling.

Christmas Concert Attenders Support Music Department

Whether you were able to attend in person or you took the opportunity to enjoy the concert online, we pray you were blessed by our students as they worshipped our Messiah.

Thank you for blessing us with your gifts to our Music Department totaling $1,760.

Athletes Sell Discount Cards

JVC Athletes in grades 7-12 are selling Viking Discount Cards for $15 each. Get great deals from area businesses. Cards are good until November 30, 2021. They make super stocking stuffers! Contact your favorite Viking or call the school office to purchase yours.

One-Act Play Needs Knitters

If you would be willing to knit or crochet some hats for costumes for this year's one-act play, please contact Mrs. Christenson by calling the school at 605-352-7737, or emailing j.christenson@jvcs.org.

We are accepting enrollment applications for second semester.
