Will You Pray?

We are excited that our juniors and seniors as well as chaperones are leaving Sunday morning for a week-long educational trip! They will get to visit the Ark Encounter, National Museum of the U.S. Air Force, Amish country, Sight and Sound Theater, and the Gettysburg area as well as other sites along the journey.

Please pray for the group's safety as they travel our beautiful country. Also pray for a time of renewed fellowship together.

Vikings Earn 281 All-Conference Placings

Karilyn Wieting earned 281 All-Conference 1st team for the 2020-21 girls basketball season. Brenna Held earned 3rd team.

For the boys, Landon Wager earned 2nd Team and Landon Wallman earned 3rd Team.

Everyone Invited to Bestest Bedtime Stories

We still have seats available for our comedy production of Bestest Bedtime Stories (As Told by Our Grandpa) (He's Silly). Will you join us March 26 or 27, at 7:00 PM in our auditorium? JVCS alumnus, parent, and teacher Brent Stahl will give the Stewardship Presentation. The atmosphere will be dreamy, the play will be entertaining, and the treats will be delicious. Download an order form at www.jvcs.org. Tickets are $25 and advanced-sale only. Seating will be socially-distanced. Groups should order together on one form.

It's a large cast of many ages. "Chances are you will know someone in the cast!" comments director Mary Helen Wipf. We hope you join us!
