All-State Quartet to Perform

JVC's All-State Chorus quartet and alternates will perform with other quartets and alternates from our region at a free public concert at the Aberdeen Civic Arena on Monday, April 19, at 5:30 PM.

On that day, Julia Blom, Seth Mendel, Kerstyn Fast, Landon Wager, Josiah Bishop, Autumn Gross, and AbbyKate Hamilton will rehearse for the concert with students from our region under the direction of conductor Dr. Timothy Woods.

Athletic Dept. Spring Cleaning

Vintage Vikings uniforms for several sports will be displayed for sale at the school's Entrance C lobby during school hours the week of April 19-23. Pay $5.00 and take home a treasure!

Share Your Career

April 19-23 is designated as the South Dakota Week of Work for sophomores and juniors in our state! The week focuses on students exploring careers within their community through job shadows, industry tours, or presentations. If you are willing to share your career with our students, please contact Mrs. Niederbaumer.

Seniors Perform Robin Hood

The Senior Class of 2021 brings you Robin Hood, written by Tim Kelly. This version of the classic story focuses on Lady Merle of Cornwall, cousin to Prince John, and the Sheriff of Nottingham as they attempt to capture the bandit of Sherwood Forest. Will Robin and his Merry Men protect the people from the Sheriff's taxes and save Maid Marian?

Everyone is welcome to attend the play on Thursday, April 22, at 7:00 PM in the JVCS Auditorium.

Re-Enrollment Forms Due

Do we have your re-enrollment forms? Note that the registration fee increases after April 30.
