TOMMY & EDDIE theskitguys

Tommy Woodard and Eddie James — The Skit Guys — are coming to JVC's for our Fall Event on Thursday, September 14! The evening is a celebration of Christian education. There is no charge to attend, and the evening is open to everyone of any age. Guests do not need tickets as seating is general admission. Doors open at 6:30, and the show starts at 7:00. Light refreshments will be provided following the show.

Tommy & Eddie write and perform hilarious and poignant skits live and on screen. They starred in Family Camp (a faith-based family film), have traveled the world performing at events, churches, and conferences, and have grown SkitGuys.com into a media resource used in churches all over the world. The Skit Guys also have a web series, a podcast, and a book called "Smells Like Bacon."

When they're not performing or shooting new videos, both guys are serving in their local churches, enjoying good food (especially pizza and fries!), and loving life with their families.

James Valley Christian School is pleased to host a biblical parenting class on Saturday, October 7.

Biblical parenting provides the foundation for all ages and stages of parenting. Whether a child is one or eighteen years old, Parenting with a Plan will inspire, encourage, and equip parents.

At JVCS, our current families receive The Renewation

Review magazine yearly. This conference is another Renewation resource to help parents assess their parenting priorities, increase their intentionality, and form their own discipleship plan. The conference we are hosting is a combination of seminars, workshops, and Q&A time.

We invite anyone to attend: single, divorced, blended families, married without children, expecting, young families, parents with teens, seasoned parents, and grandparents. This parenting conference encourages you to invest in your family and grow as a parent—no matter the age or stage.

The cost of the conference has been covered for you, and lunch is included. If you would like to attend, simply register by September 30 at www.jvcs.org.
