Executive Committee Highlights

The Executive Committee met Monday, April 8 at 6:30PM. Secretary, Treasurer, and Administrative reports were read.

Old business included the approval of a concrete project at the south entrance of the school.

New business included the approval of 2024-2025 new student applications, approval of 2024-2025 staff contracts, approval of the ASBPT employee health insurance renewal, and the review of 2023 financial documents presented by Ministry CPA.

Cleanathon Pledge Cards Mailed

Some hardworking volunteers helped us get the 2024 Cleanathon pledge cards mailed this week. Watch for your opportunity to give as our students impact our community by sprucing up areas in and around Huron on April 24. If you would like to support this fundraiser, you may return the pledge card with a check or give online at www.jvcs.org.

Stewardship Dinner Theater Giving Impacts JVCS Students

Early financial reports from the Stewardship Dinner Theater show that ticket sales, Shuk sales, and donations totaled $78,000 after expenses. Thank you for impacting our students by attending and giving.

Shuk Good for Sale

A few items from our Shuk (market) are still for sale following the Stewardship Dinner Theater. Anyone interested in purchasing the following items should call the school and ask for Pam.

Poppy Seed, 3 oz	$3.00
Raw Unsalted Almonds, 4 oz	$2.00
Fancy Halved Pecans, 6 oz	$5.00
Fancy Whole Cashews, 6 oz	$5.00
Sweetened Flake Coconut, 8 oz	$4.00
Angel Honey	$5.00
