Mrs. Halsey Wins Award

Mrs. Rachel Halsey has won the Department of SD VFW National Citizenship Education Teacher Award for the 2024-25 Command Year.

Quartermaster Anna Arnold says that Mrs. Halsey won this award, "because of her abilities as a teacher to change our society one day, one class, and one student at a time."

Mrs. Halsey will receive her award and give an address at a banquet in Pierre on Monday, January 13.

Yearbook Hosts Fundraiser

Students on JVC's yearbook staff are selling cookie dough and doughnuts. Ordering closes January 12.

Livestream Help

Each season we have many requests for us to livestream JV games along with the varsity. We would love to be able to offer this service, but we need volunteers! If you can help, contact Ms. Walter at k.walter@jvcs.org.

Passion + Science Education + Experience

JVC seeks a 7-12 science teacher for the 2024-25 school year.

If you have a passion for teaching a biblical worldview, a degree in science, and professional experience, JVC may be able to help you with pursuing alternate certification to become a science teacher at our school. Please reach out to Dr. Zajicek to explore making an impact at James Valley Christian.
