Night of Oral Interp

Come experience the excitement of oral interp at our Night of Oral Interp in the auditorium on November 10 at 7 PM. There will be an opportunity to give donation to our Drama Department during the evening.

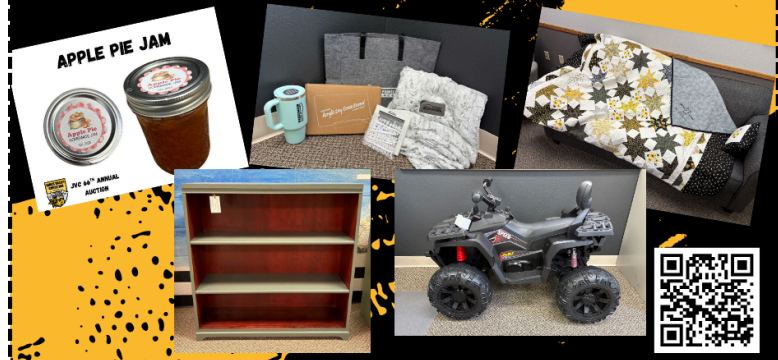

Everyone is welcome to join, but note that some selections may not be suitable for young children due to it's dramatic content.

Executive Committee Meeting Agenda

The Executive Committee is set to meet on November 10th following the Night of Oral Interpretation. During this meeting, the committee will review administrative reports and continue the board training session begun at a previous meeting. The committee will also consider introducing a new teacher retirement benefit and review one-act coaching contracts.
